2. Basis of the Charge (set forth a clear and concise statement of the facts constituting the alleged unfair labor practices) In the past six months the employer has retaliated against its employees for engaging in the protected concerted activity of discussing their working conditions including but not limited to Tesla's failure to enforce its non-harassment policy and its implementation of its post-COVID return to office policy. Specifically, relying upon its facially overbroad non-solicitation policy and applying its policies in a disparate matter, Tesla terminated two employees' employment in retaliation for their concerted protected activities and to prevent other workers from speaking up regarding their workplace rights. Tesla terminated Employee A on (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) 2022, falsely characterizing their organizing of employee discussions on these topics as "an attack" on Tesla. (Employee A is filing anonymously through their attorneys to protect themselves from public harassment/doxing.)
